

Confined Space Quiz

E-University's Safety Training Presentations

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. A confined space is defined as having limited egress, can be bodily entered, and is not designed for

2. All confined spaces must be permit-required.
True or False
3. The three hazards that must be tested for in a confined space are _____ combustibility and flammability, and toxic atmospheres.
4. Since entrants will view the hazards while in the space, it is not necessary that they know or review the hazards prior to entry.
True or False
5. If a chemical storage tank is empty, it would not be considered a confined space.
True or False
6. Two examples of typical non-permit-required confined spaces are

7. Confined space entry is a leading cause of occupational fatalities in the United States.
True or False
8. Annual _____ drills are required by the OSHA Confined Space Standard.
9. An attendant should be available to be the first person into the space to conduct a rescue.
True or False
10. An entrant should exit a confined space if ordered to do so, unknown exposures are encountered, communication is lost, or
_____.